

OPERATING PROCEDURE	Detainee Movements
OPERATING PROCEDURE NO.	S4.19
SCOPE	Alexander Maconochie Centre

PURPOSE

To provide instructions to correctional officers on the searches required during the movements of detainees in accordance with the Searching Program.

PROCEDURES

1. Detainee movements

- 1.1 Correctional officers may conduct ordinary searches, frisk searches, searches with corrections search dogs, and/or scanning searches at any time as detainees move around the Centre based on reasonable suspicion or belief that the search is prudent, in accordance with the Searching Policy and the Searching Program.
- 1.2 Where a detainee is discovered to be in possession of an article they are not authorised to have, the detainee will be taken to Admissions by Security staff for interview and consideration of additional levels of searching.
- 1.3 Where any contraband or unauthorised item is found, the searching officers must submit an incident report in accordance with the Incident Reporting, Notifications and Debriefs Procedure.
